

HAWAII PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY (HPHA)

On behalf of the State of Hawaii and the employees of Hawaii Public Housing Authority (HPHA), we invite the following highly motivated and dedicated professionals to join our team and make a difference!

The Planning and Evaluation Office is currently recruiting for a Planner IV and Planner III positions. This office is responsible for the planning, evaluation and research activities for programs administered by the Hawaii Public Housing Authority (HPHA).

Planner IV

($49,332+)

This position is responsible for supervising and overseeing program planning, development, research and analysis in support HPHA's programs, and includes developing, planning legislative proposals, reports and rule making decision; reviews and evaluates the HPHA objectives, policies, procedures and programs.

Graduation from an accredited college or university with a major in urban or regional planning, public administration, business administration or related fields, with at least three (3) semester credit hours in statistical methods and models.

Two years experience of progressively complex responsible experience that required the application of research and analysis principles for the formulation of plans and programs, and policy recommendations. Experience must have included the collection and evaluation of an extensive variety of physical, social economic and/or environmental data, determination of public opinion and general community objectives and policies to obtain a comprehensive prospective of conditions and identify problems and opportunities in the area of concern.

Planner III

($43,836+)

This position is responsible to formulates and assists in developing long and short range functional plans to meet HPHA program objectives. Conducts research, reviews and analyzes statistical, demographic and market data to identify specific levels and types of housing needs within the State; assists with the development of legislative proposals and reports in support of the HPHA plans and programs; monitors housing related measures at the Hawaii State Legislature; draft testimonies on housing related legislation and issues.

Graduation from an accredited college or university with a major in urban or regional planning, public administration, business administration or related fields, with at least three (3) semester credit hours in statistical methods and models.

One year of progressively complex responsible experience that required the application of research and analysis principles of the formulation of plans and programs, and policy recommendations. Experience must have included the collection and evaluation of an extensive variety of physical, social economic and/or determination of public opinion and general community objectives and policies to obtain a comprehensive prospective of conditions and identify problems and opportunities in the area of concern.

The above are exempt non-civil service positions. For more information about HPHA visit our website at www.hcdch.hawaii.gov. HPHA is an equal employment opportunity employer. Please submit your resume by close of business February 13, 2007.

ATTN: Personnel – HPHA
1002 N. School Street,
P.O. Box 197097
Honolulu, HI 96813
Or Fax: 832-5937

